

Our mission:

To provide research, education and services to public and nonprofit organizations that will strengthen administration, leadership and public policy making.

CPPA CENTER FOR PUBLIC POLICY & ADMINISTRATION

THE UNIVERSITY OF UTAH

- Who we are
- What we do

Our Mission

- Research
 - Policy Perspectives
 - Policy Reports and Analysis
- Education
 - MPA/ Executive MPA
 - MPP
 - CPM
 - West side Leadership
- Services
 - Organizational Development
 - Program Analysis

Our Goal

- To provide the resources to public and non-profit entities that strengthen public administration, leadership and policy making in Utah

Our Staff

Projects List

- Economic Development
 - “Clusters” analysis
 - Foreign trade database
- Education
 - Comprehensive School Reform
 - CRT test results database
- Income Security
 - County Homelessness Profiles
 - Tax Overhaul

Project Ideas

- Hispanic Policy Center
 - Voter Registration Drive
 - Community Activist in a Box
-
- Regional Center for NCLB

How you can get involved

Policy Community Involvement

- Policy Perspectives
 - Sign up
 - Submit commentary
 - Submit “perspective” on policy topic
- Community Activism

Policy Perspectives

It's here! CPPA's new e-Newsletter!

Policy Perspectives To subscribe to this newsletter, click on the Policy Perspectives link on our web site and complete the subscription form, or send email to: policy@cppa.utah.edu with "subscribe" in the subject line.

Questions?

Janice Houston

janice.houston@coppa.utah.edu

